

Since 2019, NSI has adopted certain standards to incorporate socially and environmentally sound business practices into our business. As of 2023, we've reviewed our Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) strategy and chosen to elevate our impact around these seven material topics.

FOOD SAFETY & QUALITY

We aim to provide consumers with safe, high-quality products that exceed industry standards through our comprehensive due diligence processes.

Continuously improving our processes to provide 100% verified & GFSI compliant supply chains

NUTRITION

We develop all products in order to increase accessibility and affordability of foods that help consumers follow a healthy dietary pattern.

Launched a new Clean Label Standard that is integrated with product development

SUSTAINABLE PACKAGING

We are working to deploy innovative and sustainable packaging technologies to reduce waste and accelerate the circular economy.

Implementing new recyclable & reusable materials and expanding the use of the How2Recycle program

CLIMATE

We are committed to reduce the climate impact of our business to align with a 1.5°C pathway by identifying resource efficiency opportunities in our operations.

Developing our greenhouse gas inventory to establish a Science-Based Target & report to the CDP

REGENERATIVE AGRICULTURE

We engage with our suppliers to increase the adoption of regenerative agriculture practices to improve the sustainability & resilience of our supply chains.

Creating a Sustainable Agriculture Standard and identifying opportunities to invest in, pilot and scale regenerative practices

RESPONSIBLE SOURCING

We have built out a robust social compliance program to ensure safe working conditions and enhance livelihoods of people in our supply chains.

Require our suppliers to commit to our Supplier Code of Conduct and verify compliance through Sedex membership and SMETA audits

TEAM

We prioritize our team and are actively working to enhance our resources and opportunities to build a diverse, motivated, and inspired workplace globally.

Diverse team representing twelve different nationalities and over 55 years of combined sourcing experience
